The Clerk of Court is directed to

of the State of New York, County of New York.

SO ORDERED: 12 NOV 2009

HON. PAULA A. CROTTY
UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE

Re: Daphne Barak v. Dorchester Services Limited
d/b/a The Dorchester Collection and Dorchester Services, Inc.
Docket No.: 09-cv-00879 (PAC)

09civ8793

Honorable Judge Crotty,

This firm represents the defendants, Dorchester Services Limited d/b/a The Dorchester Collection and Dorchester Services, Inc., in the above-referenced matter. Pursuant to Rule 1(A) of your Honor's Individual Practice Rules, and with the consent of the plaintiff, we respectfully submit this letter requesting that your Honor enter an Order remanding this action to the Supreme Court of the State of New York, County of New York, wherein the action was originally commenced and bears the Docket No. 150180-09.

On October 16, 2009, the defendants filed a Notice of Removal, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1446(a), to remove the action from the Supreme Court of the State of New York, County of New York, on the basis of diversity jurisdiction. Based on information provided to us by the plaintiff; namely, that she has not been a resident or domiciliary of New York since November 2007, it is apparent that because one of the defendants is a citizen of England, that this Honorable Court does not have original jurisdiction over this matter as required by 28 U.S.C. §1332(a).

MEMO ENDORSED
